2. The grievance of the petitioner is that he was given a call letter on 5th November 1999 and practical and written tests were held on 17th November 1999 but he was not called for interview. It has been pointed out by the learned Counsel for the respondents that 100% roaster was not applied as per law laidown by the Supreme Court and, therefore, the process could not be completed and a fresh advertisement was required to be issued for filling up those post. The petitioner cannot claim to have any right for completing of the selection process initiated earlier. He is free to apply as per fresh advertisement subject to compliance of conditions.
